Coffee Update – Ron Covey

We welcome our new coffee sales delivery manager, Branson Hunter, who plans to ensure that every customer is satisfied. If you ever have a delivery issue, he would like you to contact him personally ~

email: bhuntercorpus@gmail.com or text: 832-277-5856

A recent Google search informs us that the price of roasted coffee in supermarkets has increased by 20% in the past year. The time has come for us to raise our prices or close our doors. We have seen the profits we can apply to educating the children in our Guatemalan neighborhood dwindle in the last couple of years, and increased costs are on the horizon.

Most of the inputs that bring coffee to your kitchen will be more expensive this year. The growers are getting a higher price for their excellent quality green coffee. The roasters are passing their increased costs on to their customers, so we now pay more for roasting, importing, packaging, and storage. Add to that ever-increasing shipping costs.

At meetings this month, details will be determined, and the new prices will be posted on our website. You may see additions to our product line, or less popular but more expensive products may disappear. To reflect the difference in shipping cost, we may offer discounts on orders for larger quantities.

If you want to take advantage of the current prices, you should visit www.fathertomfamilycoffee.org soon. Of course, we would be very appreciative if you also visit fathertomscaminando.org and leave a generous donation to help our educational efforts!

Sponsorships

A new school year is in full swing, and we have several new students looking for sponsors. Here are a few:

- * Hester is 12 years old and in middle school. He wants to learn English. He says, "I want to excel in life and learn something that will be very useful to me in my life."
- * Belinda is 16 years old and in high school. She says, "I would like to be able to continue my studies and achieve my goal of obtaining a medical degree."
- * Valery is 19 years old in her first year at university. She says, "I would like to save my parents a little on registration fees, since they are also paying for my brother's studies."
- * Juan, 44 years old, is a father who wants to go to elementary school for adults.
- * Madison, 5 years old, is in kindergarten.

There are at least seven more students who need sponsors. You can make a big difference in their lives.

If you would like to sponsor a specific student, sponsorships are $600 for one year, or $50 a month. If you prefer, you can make a general donation to the scholarship fund.

Please contact Judy Horstman, our scholarship coordinator!
